"Assalamu alaykum warahmatullahi ta'ala wa barkatuhu my brodas n sistas in Islam am Aisha Abubakar hammawa , my topic of discussion is based on *TAQLEED: THE BLIND FAITH*

The Madhahib are a pathway to learn d deen; they do not replace d deen.d 4 popular madhahib are named after –: Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Muhammad ibn Idrees ash-Shaafa'i, Imam Malik ibn Anas, Abu Haneefah an-Nu'maan ibn Thaabit (may Allah have mercy on them all).Other madhahib include al-Layth ibn Sa'd, al-Awzaa'i etc. These imams learned fiqh (jurisprudence) from the Qur'an & Sunnah. They are mujtahideen (reason based on Quran/authentic hadith available to them, to give verdicts). None of them called his students or other people 2 follow his verdicts blindly. Rather, they used 2 call people 2 follow d Qur'an & Sunnah, criticized those who called people to blindly follow them. *They all said: "When a Hadeeth is found to be Authentic, then that is my MATH-HAB."( An-Nawawi – Al-Majmoo' - vol 1 pg 63)." Imam Malik bin Anas (rh) said: "Anyone's opinion may be accepted or rejected, except the occupant of this grave," (the grave of the Prophet (SAW)). [al-Bidayah Wan-Nihayah, (14/160)].*

💡 If our salvation is based on blindly following one of these 4 madhahib who came after d departure of d prophet and his companions, we may well ask; *what is the madhab of Prophet Muhammad (Sal Allaahu Alaihi wa Sallam), Abubakr, Umar, Uthman, Alli & other companions (radiallahuanihuma)? Were they hanafis or malikis or shafiis or hanbalis? Did they belong to any group(s) claiming exclusivity to salvation without a sharia based proof? We may further ask d blind followers of madhahib what d madhab of d 4 Imams themselves were. Was Imam Abu Hanifah a hanafi? Was Imam Malik a Maliki? Was Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal a hanbali? Was Imam Shafii a shafii? No, they were not, they all followed d Madhab of Rasullulah (Sal Allaahu Alaihi wa Sallam).*

The common defence question from d blind followers of d madhahib is: does it mean that d great & real scholars of our time knw more dan d great & real scholars of d past & d pious imams of d madhahib of d 2nd & 3rd centuries? How dare u say d 4 imams made few mistakes here & there on certain issues or gave a few wrong religious verdicts?

🔥 *Yes, they made mistakes but not on purpose. "The prophet (Sal Allaahu Alaihi wa Sallam) said every son of Adam makes mistakes.....(Trimidhi)". This includes all scholars & the companions of d prophets.It is ONLY d prophets of Allah that can be blindly followed because they are "Maasuum": divinely protected from making mistake(s) in the delivery of the divine message of Islam to the people but they made mistakes in their personal lives. Therefore, the Quran & authentic sunnah are always d criteria, no human being including d companions of d prophets should be blindly followed *"taqleed"* rather we should do *"iithibaa"* follow their authentic proofs.These imams got some rulings right and got some wrong due to d lack of access to some hadith; bcos hadiths were still in the process of compilation & access to hadiths were limited by long distances, primitive level of technology, unlike today where there is easy access 2 compilations nd authentications that had been done by Muhadiths e.g. Imam Bukhari, Muslim & scholars of our time. A fresh graduate of science 2day is definitely not as genius as Albert Einstein but he has more knowledge than Einstein bcos he has now learnt all d corrections of d errors that Einstein made and has learnt from further advancements made after the death of Einstein. "If a Muslim is following any of d rulings of these pious imams of d madhabs or a group, and he sees that the view or authentic evidence of another madhhab or scholar concerning a given matter is stronger, and he follows that, then he has done well, and that does not detract from his religious commitment or good character. There is no scholarly dispute on this point. Rather this is more in accordance with d truth and is more beloved by Allaah and His Messenger." (Shaykh al-Islam – may Allaah have mercy on him – in al-Fataawa, 22/247).

*Prophet (Sal Allaahu Alaiyhi wa Sallam) : "If a judge passes judgement based on his own ijtihaad and he is correct, he will have two rewards; if he passes judgement based on his own ijtihaad and he makes a mistake, he will have one reward." (Bukhaari). What the sincere believer must do is to follow the truth & what is correct based on authentic & verifiable evidences in the Quran & authentic hadith & avoid blindly following groups or madhabs or scholars when he knows the truth lies elsewhere. Raf' al-Malaam 'an al-A'immah al-A'laam by Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyah. Prophet (Sal Allaahu Alaiyhi wa Sallam): "ARROGANCE MEANS REJECTING THE TRUTH AND LOOKING DOWN ON PEOPLE." (Muslim). *sadakallahul azeem wallahu ahlam" ji kake "Allahu Akbar gaba daya hall din sun rude da kabbara , a hnkli ambassador mukhtar ya sauke gilashinsa yana kare mata kallo yarinyar ta Tara komai nan wani tunani ya bujiro masa a kwakwalwa..🙄🙄🙄
